

today i will find my soul here and now.

faith: complete trust or confidence in someone or something

intention is what creates our reality. intention is what orchestrates the fulfillment of our dreams.

systems of vision

this going inward, this self-absorption creates suffering, terrible suffering because it weakens us.

to most of us, spirituality is about practice, how we live in the world and how we relate to self and others.

we are almost never present.

it demands of us allegiance to integrity of vision and belief in the face of those who would either seek to silence, censor, or discredit our words.

imagination is one of the most powerful modes of resistance that oppressed and exploited folks can and do use.
